PROJECT AGREEMENT & CONTRACT

The undersigned faculty and his/her college agree to participate in the Midwest Institute’s Fulbright GPA project in the summer of 2008 with the following benefits and obligations:

The Federal grant and the Midwest Institute will provide:
1. International roundtrip airfare.
2. Traveling inside the country (airplane, bus, and train).
3. Admission fees to National Parks, Museums, Temples and Archeological sites.
4. All meals.
5. All lodging.
6. Curriculum support & mentoring (both on-site & electronically).

You and your college are obligated to:
1. Develop a draft of a curriculum module by August 31, 2008.
2. Participate in the electronic communications and curriculum sharing activities.
3. Provide the Midwest Institute director a satisfactory module by November 30, 2008.
4. Report for about 20-30 minutes on your curriculum work (module) and possible co-curricula project(s) during one of the Midwest Institute’s Conferences in 2009 or 2010.
5. Your college must be a member of the Midwest Institute consortium.
6. Support your college coordinator to promote international education at your institution.
7. One month prior to the overseas trip you and/or your college must make of payment (as matching) towards the project in the amount of $1,500.
8. The Midwest Institute (MIIIE) consortium and the Sponsoring Institutions reserve dual right of ownership of the curriculum module. Either institution may modify or distribute the module as sees fit in the course of its activities. It is MIIIE’s intent to share the module (free of charge) with its member colleges (in printed form, CD-ROM, and via its website).

The parties have executed this Agreement and in signing validate this Agreement.
